

CENTER of EXCELLENCE
for ENGINEERING BIOLOGY

James E. Pricer

From data scientist to data artist, James Pricer has used data to disrupt and transform industries. Along with undergraduate and graduate degrees in psychology and business, James has been awarded multiple patents in pattern recognition methods and software. For his artwork, he uses human data such as DNA and creates animated abstractions of these data that search for more inclusive patterns in our understanding of ourselves and others.